COE, IOE Groups Have Successful Year

The highlight of the year for seniors in the COE and IOE programs was a trip to Gatlinburg, Tennessee, in mid April. Some of the sights they visited while at Gatlinburg were the Smokey Mountains and the Vanderbilt Mansion. Senior IOE toured IBM, Lumberman's Insurance, and the United Telephone Company. To raise money for their trip to Tennessee, they sold coloring books, had bake sales, and had a fund raiser kit. COE had bake sales and a Kit-n-Kaboodle sale. COE officers were President Rebecca Fox, Vice-President Pam Owens, Secretary JoAnn Castle, and Treasurer Kay Trent. Mr. Neuerman was the advisor. IOE officers were President Jevita Perkins, Vice President Jill Owens, Secretary Tracy Blaising, and Treasurer Veronica Bundy. Mr. Groff was the advisor.

Junior IOE Steno and IOE Clerk-Typists had many projects this year, including bake sales, a car wash, and candy sales. IOE clerk-typists also toured the United Telephone Company. Officers were President Theresa Baker, Vice-President Denise Frazier, Secretary Melinda Martin, and Treasurer Tammy Collins. Mrs. Miller is the advisor. IOE Steno officers were Karen Miller, president; Dewana Means, vice-president; Daphyne Sanderfer, secretary; and Linda Zeigler, Treasurer. Mrs. Williams is the Advisor.

Student Government, Classes Have Active Year

Student Government sponsored school elections and delivered over one hundred Christmas baskets this year.

This year's Senior Class officers are Russ White, president; Gary Smith, vice-president; Janine Boocks, treasurer; and Kim Pfleider, secretary. Senior class advisors are Ann Kohutek and Robert Lull. Varsity Varieties and the Fruit Sale were two of the successful projects this year. They also held the J. C. Gorman elections in which Libby Penix was crowned queen. The Executive Committee is shown at the right.

Leading the Jr. Class, pictured above, are President Dave Treace; Vice-President Sue Hilliard; Treasurer Traci Grogg; and Secretary Karen Dixon. Ann Lewis and Dave Gross are the advisors. The Junior Class sponsored a successful Homecoming. They also had a pizza sale which turned out fairly successful.

DOWNTOWN MANSFIELD

American Electrical Products Company

653 Lida Street • Mansfield, Ohio 44903

Established in 1920, American Electrical Products continues to build on the keystone of quality — both in materials and workmanship. Originally a producer of toys for children, the firm soon moved into production of various electrical products. Out of this grew the need for close tolerance, precision screw machine parts. This need changed the direction of the company's production and in 1935 American Electrical Products began to make precision screw machine parts for another company. Today, we're still doing business with that first customer, and still producing quality screw machine parts for them. Through the years, this policy of making quality parts to the exact specifications of our customers has maintained our steady growth.
